TEMPTATION SHOES

News Item from SHOE RETAILER, Boston, Mass.

THE DAVIS SHOE CO. of Salt Lake City, composed of Benjamin Davis, president, and Anson Levitt, secretary and treasurer, who a short time ago opened a new store on the corner of Essex and Washington streets for the sale of the Davis Shoes, has sold their lease and will remove their stock to Salt Lake City, where they operate a large and flourishing store. Messrs. Davis and Levitt spared no pains to have this department modern in every way, and their store was one of the best lighted and most conveniently equipped in the city. Upon acquisition of the lease of this store, immediate offers were forthcoming for the sale thereof, but owing to the fact that the new Washington street subway was to affect the entrance, matters remained at a standstill until it was decided by the subway commission that the frontage of this store would remain undisturbed. Then, under the influence of offers of a large bonus the sale of the lease was effected, thereby netting the owners a goodly sum.

Mr. Levitt has no new location in view at present, but will transfer the stock to the Salt Lake City store, and after finishing up the buying of fall goods for that store, will return to the West. The assistant manager of the Boston store, F. E. Chadwick, will enter the employ of the firm of H. A. Smith, on One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, New York, as soon as the stock is removed. Communications for the Boston store will be received at the Salt Lake office.

In a later issue we shall show the interior arrangement of this store, which we feel sure will present some novel ideas as regards store equipment.
